The below is not a final, just a preview

What is this label?

Analysis of incomes across the U.S.

Description

The dataset examines socio-economic factors across U.S. states. It focuses on disparities affecting communities of color, including median household income, unemployment rates, and education levels. The goal is to uncover correlations between these factors, understand the impact on the American Dream, and contribute to a more empathetic society by highlighting overlooked stories.

Keywords

How to use it?

The below is not a final, just a preview

What is this label?

People

Owned by	FiveThirtyEight, United States Census Bureau 🗸
Created Aaron Bycoffe, John Creamer, Emily A. Shrider, Kalee Burns, and by Frances Chen >
Maintained by	N/A V
Funding	U.S. Census ∨
Management	538, U.S. Census Bureau ✓

Technical information

Publish Date	2022-01-01
Format	CSV
Instances	1) 52 2) 450
Version	multiple
License	N/A
Collection timeframe	2013-2022

The below is not a final, just a preview

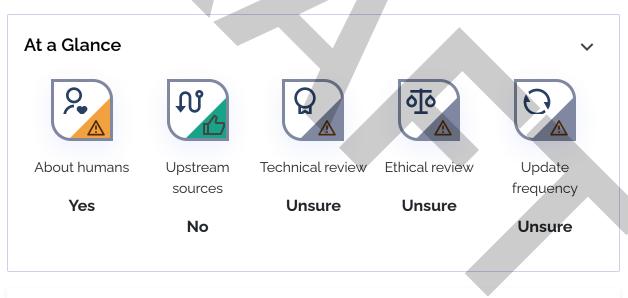

What is this label?

Git Repository

https://github.com/fivethirtye... >

Geography - Each row represents a U.S. state. Socio-economic Factors - Variables such as median household income, seasonal unemployment rates, and population in metropolitan areas. Educational Attainment - Information about the educational levels of citizens in different states. Demographic Statistics - Consideration of non-citizens and their correlation with white poverty levels. American Dream - Analysis of disparities based on location and how economic factors influence the pursuit of the American Dream. Community Disparities - Exploration of socio-economic variations and their impact on communities of color.

Inference risks

Number of issues

The below is not a final, just a preview

What is this label?

The below is not a final, just a preview

What is this label?

